Dear Parish Family,

Alleluia! Christ is truly risen! Alleluia! Our time in the desert has come to an end, we have reached the joyous season of Easter! The tomb is empty, and Christ has been raised from the dead defeating sin and death! Please keep in mind that the Easter Season is a 50-day celebration that ends at the great celebration of Pentecost on May 19th. What's the point of spending 40 days of fasting and penance if we don't spend the 50 days celebrating?

At the Easter Vigil I had the immense honor of baptizing four new Catholics. They, along with two others, were received into the Church, were Confirmed, and received their First Holy Communion. This is my first time ever as a priest to celebrate these Sacraments at the Easter Vigil, and it brought me immense joy to not only walk with them but also celebrate these Sacraments for them. Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum have some of my favorite liturgies of the Church. I am grateful to Tonia and the choir, as well as my staff for helping in so many ways.

As many of you may have noticed, our altar rail is done! How appropriate that it was completed just before the Mass of the Lord's Supper, where Christ gave us the priesthood and the Holy Eucharist. One of my hopes is that this altar rail will help increase a devotion and reverence to the Blessed Sacrament. In the next few weeks, I plan on starting instructions on how the rail will be used at masses. As I have mentioned before, you will still be able to receive either on the hand or on the tongue. Work has also started on making the confessional at St. Michael larger. Behind the current confessional was once an old sacristy and day chapel, which was once used for storage. I hope to utilize that space to make the confessional easier for people to come in and out of, as well as making it feel less cramped.

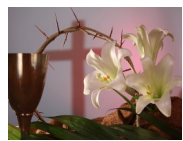

God Bless, Fr. Killeen

He is risen!!! After much preparation and penance, we have walked with Christ through the holiest days in the Church's calendar and now we join with him in the celebration of his triumphant victory over death.

In the Church, celebrations are not over and done with in one day. Rather, they take place over a number of days. In fact, just as we have completed the 40 days of the Lenten season, we now begin 40 days of celebrating the Resurrection of Christ. As such, we should celebrate with the same degree of intensity with which we fast. The Easter decorations should not come down and be packed away on Easter Monday. The joy of Easter Sunday should continue to fan the flame in our hearts for many days to come. May we all experience and savor the joy that comes from knowing that the Lord has overcome death, and in doing so, has made a way for us to overcome our failings and frailties.

I pray that we all enter fully into the joy of the Easter season and allow the risen Lord to make his home in our hearts.

Happy Easter to you and your family!!! ~Alicia
