Dear Parish Family,

Today, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Though it was only added to the liturgical calendar in 2000 by Pope St. John Paul the Great, the idea of God's infinite and unending mercy is not at all new. From the very beginning, God has been merciful to us. This Sunday emphasizes in a particular way that mercy. The celebration itself stems from a devotion of St. Faustina who had visions of Christ. We have an image of the Divine Mercy that is kept by the presider's chair throughout the year.

At 3 p.m., what is known as the hour of mercy, we will have an hour of adoration and pray together the Divine Mercy chaplet. Please help spread the word, I will also offer confessions during this holy hour. What a great opportunity to receive graces from God. On Divine Mercy Sunday, there is an opportunity for a plenary indulgence (removes all temporal punishment due to sin).

The usual conditions are as follows:

- Confession [within about 20 days before or after the Sunday]
- Eucharistic communion [preferably on the day or the day before or after]
- prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff [certain prayers are not specified]

The specific conditions for this indulgence on Divine Mercy Sunday are:

- in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy.
- or, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!"

For those who are homebound, you are invited to spend time in prayer and recite an Our Father and the Creed, then pray: "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!"

At the 11 a.m. Mass, we had 36 young boys and girls receive their First Holy Communion. We celebrate with them as we continue on this Easter Season! May they all and their families continue to approach Christ at His Eucharistic altar!

Looking ahead, I hope to offer Vacation Bible Camp this summer. Growing up, I remember attending VBC as a kid, and then volunteering in high school. It was such a fun and important part of the summer. With that being said, we will need volunteers, both in high school and adults, to help make this a reality. Please contact the office to sign up. I hope to release more information soon.

God Bless, Fr. Killeen

The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed
Monday, April 8th at 8AM

Sweet Sale! The St. Joseph Altar Society and the St. Michael Altar Society will have a sweet sale the weekend of April 13 & 14 after all the Masses in Iota and Egan.

Congratulations to Brooke Clay, Katelyn Clay, Cassie Broussard, Nicholas Duplechain and Kouri Chiasson for being baptized into full communion with the Catholic Church. We also congratulate Sarah Eaton on receiving the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation and Ruby Ritter for being Confirmed.
