Dear Parish Family,

I am grateful to everyone who helped plan and put on my welcome reception. It was an immense joy to meet so many of you. An important part of parish life consists of social gatherings like that. It brings a new life to the parish, and allows for the strengthening of our community.

This week, the Church will celebrate the great Feast of St. Mary Magdalene. She is one of the greatest examples in Scripture of God's mercy, grace, and forgiveness. After experiencing Christ's forgiveness, Mary Magdalene followed Christ, devoting her life to service.

She most likely watched the crucifixion from a distance along with the other women who followed Christ. Mary was also present when Christ rose from the dead. She was one of the first to witness His Resurrection. So, she was the first to bring the joyful news of His Resurrection to the Apostles. This is why she is known as the "Apostle to the Apostles."

We should strive to imitate St. Mary Magdalene in the way she repented of her sins and how she turned her life over to service of Christ. With this in mind, we are still asking for parishioners to read at mass, be Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and altar servers. Please call the office to sign up.

Also, my door continues to be open to anyone who would like to visit, raise suggestions, or even concerns. I continue to keep all of you in my prayers, please let me know or call the office if you have any special intentions that I can take to my holy hour.

In Christ,
Fr. Killeen

Adoration Chapel— We have 5 hours left to make the Adoration Chapel perpetual!
Please consider taking an hour to help make this possible.
