Fr. Killeen– Egan

Dear Parish Family,

It is with great joy that I announce some wonderful news! We welcome Dcn. Ryan Fuselier to St. Joseph and St. Michael! By the time many of you read this letter, this announcement will have been made by the Diocese. Please feel free to read his letter in the bulletin and pray for him as he begins this new ministry in our parish. Dcn. Ryan will begin his assignment with us on June 15th/16th.

For those who may not know, a permanent deacon is an ordained minister of the Church. Deacons are ordained and remind us how Christ came "to serve and not to be served." Deacons assist the priest at mass, preach, can celebrate baptisms, witness marriages, and visit the sick and homebound. We again welcome him to our parish and pray for him as he begins this new ministry!

We also congratulate and pray for Fr. John Dugas, who was ordained at St. Mary Magdalene in Abbeville this past Saturday. Please keep all the newly ordained in your prayers and continue to pray for vocations! Speaking of ordination, June 6th marks my fourth anniversary of priestly ordination. I continue to ask for all of your prayers.

This past Friday, we celebrated the great Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Though devotion to the Sacred Heart grew in the Middle Ages, God's love has existed since the very beginning. The Early Fathers of the church expressed that, "in the Heart of Jesus, the Christian finds the source of his or her life in Christ." It is from the pierced side of Christ that we find new life. The Sacred Heart reminds us of God's boundless and passionate love for mankind.

God Bless,
Fr. Killeen

I am Deacon Ryan Fuselier, born and raised in Eunice, La. My wife Mary and I have been blessed with 30 years of marriage, and together, we cherish the joy of raising our three daughters. This summer, we eagerly await the arrival of our first grandchild, a new chapter of excitement and joy in our lives.

After earning my degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in 1996 and spending a bulk of my career in Lafayette; in 2016 I established and currently own a Land Surveying & Mapping company based here in Eunice, where I've been privileged to work from home.

In March 2023, I was ordained as a Deacon for the Diocese of Lafayette, answering a call to serve the Church and my community in a deeper capacity. My journey in ministry began at St. Thomas More Parish, where I recently completed my first assignment, learning and growing alongside parishioners in faith and service.

Currently, I am pursuing a Masters of Theology from the University of Holy Cross in New Orleans, further enriching my understanding and ability to serve God's people with compassion and knowledge.

My assignment to St. Joseph and St. Michael's Parish holds special significance for my family, particularly because our youngest daughter has been attending St. Francis School for the past two years. This time has allowed us to foster a meaningful connection with the community, and I eagerly anticipate continuing to integrate myself into parish life, serving alongside Fr. Killeen and our parish family.

Dcn. Ryan Fuselier

Prayer to Saint Medard:

Saint Medard, patron saint for protection against bad storms, we ask you to intercede for us during the storms of our lives as well as the storms in nature. Protect our families and our homes. We pray for assistance for the victims of hurricanes, tornadoes, rainstorms, and other natural disasters. Loving God, send in more helpers, and multiply resources and supplies for the aid of those in need. You calmed the storm on the Sea of Galilee; deliver us from the storms that are raging around us now. Saint Medard, pray for us. Amen.
