Dear Parish Family,

We had two successful missions. I hope those who attended learned a little more about our two great patrons. Both St. Michael and St. Joseph have played an important role in my priesthood, I hope they can help all of you grow in holiness and learn to love the Lord just as they do. Our Lenten Book Study is also going well, thanks to those who signed up for that as we dive deeper into the life and love of St. Joseph.

Sunday, March 10th, starts the nine-day novena to St. Joseph. It will end on his feast day, Tuesday, March 19th. I would personally like to invite everyone to join us in praying this novena. We pray first for protection over our parish and town. Second, we also pray for an increase of vocation to the priesthood, particularly from our parish. Finally, we pray that God may raise up good, holy father, who seek to imitate St. Joseph in every way.

At the doors of church, we have copies of the novena, please join me in praying this prayer. You are also more than welcome in adding your own personal intentions as you pray this novena. The novena, as I mentioned, will end on March 19th with the great celebration of our patron. We will have mass at 8 a.m. with our St. Francis School students, and end with a procession to the St. Joseph Altar in the hall. There will be food, sweets, and fellowship. Please consider attending as we celebrate our patron!

On the 13th, we will have our Confirmation Mass at 6 p.m. Bishop Deshotel will be celebrating Confirmation this year, so we are honor to have him. We also pray for all of our Confirmation candidates, that they may be open and receptive to God's will. I am grateful to Jude and Jessica LeDoux, who have been walking with and preparing our candidates for this powerful Sacrament.

I mentioned at St. Michael that the Saturday 6 p.m. will most likely be moved to 5:30 p.m. I received some great feedback from people. So, please make note of this change, especially those who regularly attend this mass. Starting the weekend of Divine Mercy Sunday, so on April 6th the Vigil Mass at St. Michael will now be at 5:30 p.m. We will announce this as much as possible leading up to the change.

God Bless, Fr. Killeen

St. Joseph Altar– Our parish will host a “St. Joseph Altar” on Tuesday, March 19th and planning is underway! We will be decorating on Monday, March 18th beginning at 9:30 AM. There are sign up sheets in the foyer of both churches for need help, food items and religious articles (please label your articles). If each of us give a little of our time and talents and also donate one food dish, together our parish can enjoy a beautiful day of thanksgiving to our parish's patron, St. Joseph.
