

1st reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples
a feast of rich foods.

On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
the web that is woven over all nations.
He will destroy death forever.

The Lord God will wipe away
the tears from all faces.
The reproach of his people he will remove
from the whole earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

On that day it will be said:
“Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the Lord for whom we looked,
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!”

The Word of the Lord! --Thanks be to God.

Psalm response

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose.

Beside restful waters he leads me,

He refreshes my soul.

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths

for His name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley

I fear no evil, for you are at my side.

With your rod and your staff you give me courage!

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me

in the sight of my foes.

You anoint my head with oil,

my cup overflows.

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me

all the days of my life.

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord

for years to come.

The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

2nd reading

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. So then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

For we shall stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written:

“As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall give praise to God.”

So then each of us shall give an account of himself to God.

The Word of the Lord!

--Thanks be to God.
